

Elizabeth Roof

Elizabeth Roof was 4 when she started dancing at En Avant Dance Studio. She began assisting at 15. She has taken Ballet, Pointe, Hip Hop, Tap, Irish, Jazz and her favorites Contemporary and Lyra/Aerial Hoop. Elizabeth has had the opportunity to study with many artists from around the country including Lawrence Jackson, tap master Tony Coppola, Terrell Davis of Davis Dance Company, Chyrstyn Fentroy and Tyson Clark of Boston Ballet, former Paul Taylor dancers Amy and Rob Kleinendorst, Limon Dance Company dancers including Jesse Obremski and Frances Samson, University of Utah assistant professor Natalie Desch, and University of Wyoming professors Juliana Fruede, Cat Kamrath, Marsha Knight and Margaret Wilson. Elizabeth's performance experiences include multiple Nutcrackers, holiday collaborations with the Cheyenne Symphony Orchestra, Ballet Wyoming's feature of Alice in Wonderland, and Reformation Dance Company's 2019-2020 season as a demi soloist.

Elizabeth is currently attending Laramie County Community College working toward an associate's degree in Applied Science with a plan to transfer to the University of Wyoming to study Dance Science.