

Jonathan Hedger

Jonathan is honored to be joining En Avant for his 5th year of teaching here. He was born in Las Vegas, Nevada and traveled around the world with his military family before settling in Cheyenne, where he continues to call home. Jonathan began dancing at the age of 11 and has studied continuously since then. His focus today is on ballet and contemporary work although he has worked with styles from tap, jazz, and hip hop to Irish step, modern, and aerial arts. He has studied around the country with some of the most renowned names in dancing from Colorado Ballet and Joffrey Ballet to Tony Coppola, John Pennington, and Peter Pucci, but has enjoyed collaborations with other local artists from Wyoming and Colorado more recently.
