

Gracie Knauth

Gracie Knauth grew up in Bigfork, Montana, where she discovered her passion for dance at the age of five. Growing up she explored various styles including jazz, lyrical, contemporary, ballet, tap, clogging, hip hop, and acro. Gracie was also a member of the Bigfork High School Cheer and Stunt Team, where she developed her skills in pom, stunting, and tumbling.

Gracie began teaching journey as an assistant instructor at her home studio in the Flathead Valley, working with both acro and dance classes. She was also invited to return as a judge for the M.A.T.S. Tumbling Competition in 2023 and 2025. After moving to Bozeman to attend Montana State University, Gracie continued sharing her love of movement as an instructor at Tanya's Dance Company. In 2023, she became a certified Acrobatic Arts instructor and taught Acro/Tumbling and Creative Movement classes through 2025.

Gracie graduated from Montana State University in 2025 with bachelor's degrees in Elementary Education and Spanish Teaching and will be starting her teaching career as a First Grade Dual-Language Immersion teacher for the 2026-2027 school year. Gracie is thrilled to be joining the En Avant family and looks forward to working alongside passionate dancers
