

Molly Koch began dancing at En Avant at the age of 3 and fell in love. She studied ballet, pointe, jazz, tap, lyrical, contemporary, hip hop, Irish step, modern, musical theatre, and Lyra/aerial hoop. Molly was captain of the Central dance team for two years. In the spring of 2023, Molly choreographed her own performance piece and earned 1st place and best of show in the annual Kiwanis Stars of Tomorrow talent show. Molly's dedication has led to additional opportunities, including performing with the Cheyenne Symphony Orchestra, performing in San Diego Ballet's Nutcracker and attending the Snowy Range Summer Dance Festival. Molly has studied under great artists including Keith and Kellye Saunders, Carol Schuberg, Amy and Rob Kleinendorst, Lawrence Jackson, Tony Coppola, and Chyrstyn Fentroy. Molly is excited to be teaching En Avant Dance and sharing her very real passion for dance, working with students, and helping others achieve their goals. Molly is pursuing a degree in business management at Laramie County Community College.
