

Jessie Kline

Originally from Helena, Montana, Jessie Kline's dance journey began early with competitive Irish step dancing in regional feis beginning around 10. After moving to Wyoming, he learned country bar swing and has spent the last few years training in ballet and tap at En Avant.

Jessie is an actor and singer with Cheyenne Little Theatre Players and serves on the CLTP board. Having performed in many local productions he also directed Newsies at CLTP and Shrek The Musical.

Jessie teaches at the college of Health Sciences at the University of Wyoming, has rescued two cats, if he's not at home you'll usually find him at CLTP, En Avant or playing volleyball at Lions Park.

He brings musicality, and performance storytelling to the studio, and he loves helping dancers of all levels build confidence and find joy in dance.
