

Kristin Downs

Kristin Downs is a recent graduate of the Jeanine Larson Dobbins Conservatory of Theatre and Dance at Southeast Missouri State University. She was born in Missouri, but moved to Cheyenne, Wyoming when she was five years old where she began dancing at En Avant dance studio and continued dancing at until she graduated high school.

Upon graduating high school, Kristin moved to Casper, Wyoming to attend Casper College and pursue her Associate of Arts in Dance performance which she completed in 2019. At Casper College, Kristin studied ballet, modern, jazz, and tap, as well as attending two American College Dance Association festivals. At Casper College, she performed in A Rock 'N Roll Fantasy and Firebird.

After graduating with her Associates, Kristin left for Missouri to get her Bachelors. In Missouri, she had the opportunity to attend one more American College Dance Association festival. She also danced in two Fall or Dance concerts and one Spring into Dance concert during her two years. In May 2021, she graduated with her Bachelor of Arts in Dance Performance and moved back to Cheyenne, Wyoming before going back to school later to pursue her Master's.
